ABOUT RURAL HILL

For more information, quotes, or media appearances please reach out to Jessica Bustamante at Historic Rural Hill at jessica@RuralHill.net 704-875-3113

Rural Hill is a Historic Site, Nature Preserve, Field Trip Destination, Cultural Events Site, Farm, and all around great place to get away from one's daily stresses in life. Bring your students to experience excellence during our fascinating and unique educational programs focusing on history, science, creative thinking, reading, and even math! Stop by and enjoy the solitude of nature that only 265 secluded acres can provide while hiking our extensive network of trails. Visit us and feel the rush of communal excitement with several thousand new friends at one of our cultural events. Step back in time as you step through our cabin's doorway, smelling the delicious smells of food cooking over an open hearth. Hear the ringing of the blacksmith's hammer, the chop of the woodworker's adze, and the blast of the militiaman's musket. We have over 250 years of history and heritage to share with you, your family, and your students. Whatever your interest, Rural Hill has something for you!!
